Country, Blues, Soul, Rock N Freakin Roll 🎵🎵🎵

Creek Don't Rise is an eclectic four-piece band hailing from the mountains of West Virginia/Kentucky. Their soulful, blues inspired music takes influence from their native Appalachia, spanning across "Country, Blues Soul, Rock n Freakin Roll". The band tackles and successfully plays several genres of music. "Our Niche is We Have No Niche". Their original music cannot be easily labeled either , with soul searching lyrics about life and powerful guitar and harmonica solos over rock steady rhythms and silky smooth dynamics. This band is not like any other touring today.
